

105,707

R. E. & A. D. WATSON
COUNSELORS AT LAW
41-43 PATERSON STREET
NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.

RUSSELL E. WATSON
A. DUDLEY WATSON

September 27, 1926.

T. N. Pfeiffer, Esq.,
Counselor at Law,
120 Broadway,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Pfeiffer:-

The following is a memorandum of the McCaffery incident:

On Sept. 10, 1926 at 8 P. M. Mrs. Hall received a telephone call from a person who refused to give his name, to the effect that a man named McCaffery, who was then to be found at No. 173 French Street, had seen Gorsline on the night of Sept. 14, 1922, and could give valuable information. The informant also stated that a Mirror man was on his way to see McCaffery.

I went immediately to No. 173 French Street, which proved to be a saloon, and found there John McCaffery of 353 Handy St. He is a hunchback. He was formerly manager of a small cigar factory. He was latterly Manager of a Collection Agency, and is now employed in a clerical capacity at the International Motor Co.

He told me that Mayer of the Mirror had telephoned him that afternoon, and had made an appointment with him to meet him at No. 173 French Street, where McCaffery spends a good deal of his evening time, at ten o'clock that evening.

I explained to McCaffery my errand. At first he was reluctant to say anything, and demanded to know who sent the information. I had difficulty in convincing him that I did not know. He then said that on the night of Sept. 14, 1922, he left the Elk's Club on Albany Street at about 10.30 or 11 o'clock, with three friends, only one of whom he named, a man named Kirby. He took them all to their homes in the Sixth Ward, and then returned to the Elk's Club. He again left the Elk's Club in his automobile about 12.30, and went to Peter Tenneson's saloon, at No. 174 Easton Avenue where he stayed until ten minutes to one. He then drove alone along Easton Avenue to Huntington Street, which runs at right angles to Easton Avenue, along Buccleuch Park, and was intending to turn right on Huntington Street to return home, when an automobile approached